

Member Benefits

Focused on protecting those who serve, TMPA is committed to providing Texas law enforcement officers with a wide range of benefits, including:

- Unmatched legal protection using private practice attorneys who will respond to critical incidents 24 hours a day, seven days a week within two hours or we'll pay you $500.
- Local support you can rely on. TMPA Field Representatives travel all over the state supporting our individual members, local affiliated associations and their communities.
- Effective contract bargaining and support for management surveys, compensation surveys and local election/referendum.
- Political lobbying at state and local levels to protect the rights and interests of peace officers. Most recently, TMPA has worked hard to protect your pensions.
- Affordable TCOLE-approved training that can be brought to you. TMPA also provides access to many free trainings.
- Financial services such as access to retirement specialists, financial planning, discount home and auto insurance and disability coverage.
- Response and personal assistance to officers during natural disasters and other catastrophic events (hurricanes, floods, tornadoes, etc.).
- $10,000 line of duty death benefit to the families of fallen officers.
- Dependent scholarships which award $20,000 annually to help member's pay for the increasing cost of education.
- Support of charitable organizations such as Concerns of Police Survivors (COPS) and the Make a Wish Foundation.

Types of TMPA Membership

Full-time Officer — $28 per month

Full coverage for critical incidents, administrative actions, criminal prosecutions and civil actions.

Part-Time, Reserve, Non-Paid — $18 per month

Coverage for critical incidents, civil or criminal action. Administrative coverage is not provided.

Retired — $3 per month

Coverage for critical incidents, civil or criminal action arising from a critical incident.

Please see the Summary Plan Description for the Peace Officers' Legal Defense Fund (POLDF) and Trust located on TMPA's website for more information.

Visit TMPA's website to learn about all the benefits of membership and join TMPA today.